Become a member of the Australasian Study of Parliament Group (ASPG).

The ASPG is a politically non-partisan body which was established in 1979 to encourage and stimulate research, writing, teaching and discussion about parliamentary institutions, particularly those in Australasia and the South Pacific. It has chapters in all states and territories of Australia and in New Zealand.

Its membership consists of parliamentarians, parliamentary officers, academics, teachers, journalists, students and other interested individuals.

Membership of the ACT Chapter costs $45 per year and entitles you to:

- Two issues per year of the Australasian Parliamentary Review
- Discounts to attend the ASPG Annual Conference and other ASPG functions
- Priority to attend seminars and other functions held by the ACT Chapter.

For more information about the ACT Chapter go to actaspg.wordpress.com or contact the Secretary James Rees on james.rees.reps@aph.gov.au or 02 6277 4670.
