RESEARCH DISCUSSION FORUM

ANZSOG INSTITUTE FOR GOVERNANCE: LUNCHTIME SERIES

Scott BRIDGES

Friday 15 March 2013, 12.30pm – 1.30pm
Building 23, Level B, Room 5, University of Canberra
BYO lunch

The aim of this forum is to provide an informal and friendly forum where staff, PhD students and visitors can present their research projects, test new ideas, and discuss about future directions of research.

TITLE

Al Jazeera English and the Egyptian Revolution

PAPER SYNOPSIS

How Al Jazeera English scooped its competitors in the 24-hr TV news market, and how it is building on the trailblazing legacy of the original Al Jazeera channel.

SPEAKER DETAILS

Scott Bridges currently lectures in journalism and communication at the University of Canberra. He has worked for news organisations around the world including Al Jazeera English in Qatar, and Sky News in the UK. Scott's book examining the rise of Al Jazeera English, in the context of the Egyptian Revolution, will be released soon.
